Dissolution of Partnership.

Notice is hereby given that the partnership heretofore existing between Hatten, Warren & Co., has been dissolved. Hatten and Warren have bought the interest of John Powers, who withdraws from the firm. The business will be conducted by Hatten & Warren. All accounts due Hatten, Warren & Co., are to be paid to Hatten & Warren. HATTEN & WARREN. JOHN POWERS.

We are in receipt of the Big Sandy News, successor to the Lawrence County Index. Our young friend, Boyd Ferguson, is knight of the paste-pot and shears; also of the "shooting stick" and "planer." Boyd has been monkeying with amateur papers ever since he was a "kid," and by this time ought to have the business down pretty fine. Mr. Anderson Webb, a gentleman whom we have not the pleasure of knowing works the outside and punches up delinquents. It takes a hustler to keep the animals stirred up.—Correspondent (W. Va.) Enterprise.

To the worshipful Master, Warden and Brethren of Apperson Lodge No. 195.

Your committee to whom was submitted the duty of preparing suitable resolutions concerning the death of Brother Robert Crutcher, beg leave to present the following:

WHEREAS, Death having removed from our midst a friend and neighbor and from our Lodge a worthy brother, Therefore, be it resolved.

FIRST. That we as Masons deplore the loss of one of our members, who for many years was an advocate and follower of the high and noble principles of Freemasonry.

SECOND. That in the death of Brother Crutcher society has lost an honest, industrious man and his family a kind and indulgent father.

THIRD. That as a token of our respect for our deceased brother the Lodge be draped in mourning and that we wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.

FOURTH. That the resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the Lodge, and that a copy be furnished to the family of Brother Crutcher, and one to the Big Sandy News, Ashland Express, Ky. Democrat and Ashland Independent for publication.

All of which is fraternally submitted.

G. W. WROTEN, J. W. JONES, G. WILSON, COMMITTEE.

Infidelity.

Being publicly, and somewhat furiously assailed as to my ideas of Religion, I take this method of correcting the error. From the best information I can get, the report was originated by an accomplished and thoroughly informed (?) lady of Louisville. Now, I said lady would only consult her Dictionary for a few moments, she would find that she, nor any one else, ever heard me utter any thing in support of Infidelity. It is not in the Christian Religion that I ever lacked confidence, but the individuals who have taken advantage of it as a cloak to hide their baser nature. Hence, in giving my opinion of individuals professing the Christian Religion I set this Christian lady thus in motion, where upon she informs parties who, for mercenary motives, try to circulate it to their advantage, and to my disadvantage. Just to show that these parties are not so Christian in deed as in word, let's consider: If they wished me in the Christian ranks, as they profess, and, as true Christians would, why did they not take steps to show me that I was in error, and come to my face and prove to me that I was wrong, instead of going about shooting arrows of slander behind my back, as they have done. I do not charge such as this upon the system of Religion, but only upon individuals in whose hearts I have no reason to believe it ever existed. Of all the Institutions in existence, that of the Christian Religion is certainly the most wantonly abused.

To make a long matter short, I believe in the existence of a God, in an existence throughout eternity, and of a place of reward, for both good and evil deeds. Hereafter he of who may go about repeating the charge, do so with "liar," sent redhot, down their throats. This is not written to hurt the feelings of any one who is not guilty of willfully circulating the charge aforesaid. C. R. LEWIS.

Pocket books, Base balls, Pipes, Pencils, Pencil holders Rubber, bands, Razors, Strops, Scrap books, Pictures, French harps, Accordions, and every thing usually found at a first class notion store at Leo Franks Bazar.

FOR SALE.

As Anderson Webb to whom I bargained a one half interest in the Presses, types and materials used in the publication of the Lawrence County Index, has failed to comply with the terms of sale, I feel at liberty to dispose of the same to any one who may desire to buy. A splendid opportunity for an energetic man with a little money.

H. T. LITTLETON.

WARNING.

To whom it may concern: As will be seen from the above notice Mr Anderson Webb has failed, for some cause unknown to me, to buy a one-half interest in the outfit now used in the publication of the News, as he has agreed with me to do, and as he has failed to come to time for business, I hereby warn all persons that he has no part in the Big SANDY NEWS and is not authorized to collect moneys, make contracts or in any way transact any business connected with this office.

THE LIVING TARIFF.

The Courier-Journal is the acknowledged REPRESENTATIVE NEWSPAPER OF THE SOUTH, is DEMOCRATIC in politics, and first, last and all the time is for: reduction of the war taxes, as levied on the people by the tariff now in force.

THE WEEKLY COURIER-JOURNAL Is without a superior in the world as a great family and political newspaper, and during the year 1885 it will strive more zealously and hopefully than ever for its political faith, not neglecting, however, the infinite variety of choice miscellany that cause it to be so great a favorite in the family circle. The return to power of the Democratic party will make 1885 a year marked in the history of the United States, and no family should be without the Courier-Journal who desire to keep thoroughly posted on public events. THE WEEKLY COURIER-JOURNAL has the LARGEST DEMOCRATIC CIRCULATION OF ANY NEWSPAPER IN AMERICA.

If you are unacquainted with it ask any subscriber to it as to its merits as a great family and political newspaper in point of quality and quantity of interesting reading matter it leads the newspaper press of the United States. If money, industry and enterprise can keep it at it will continue at the head of American journals. It contains, each week, the most complete summary of the news of the world and its editorial columns (Henry Waterson, Editor-in-chief) are always able, strong and bright. Among the SPECIAL FEATURES are: Telegraphic Specials from all the leading points in the United States and Europe, Serials, Short Stories by popular and noted writers, Talmage's Sermons, Market Reports, Fashion Letters, Turf and Stock Reports, answers to Correspondents' Department, Poetry and Department for Children. No Home in the Country should be without it.

THE COURIER-JOURNAL

Distinctly represents the non-office holding non-office seeking classes. It is a critic, not an organ; friendly to those who serve the country well; hostile to those who fail to serve it, or serve it ill; equality without eulogizing alliances or selfish expectations; other than the confidence and support of the people to whom alone it owes allegiance. It will have no compromises to make with time-servers, but will keep right on in the path of duty which it has marked out for itself, regardless of consequences. It will intolerance and liberalism where they appear, and has no quarter to give to, or ask from, malefaction and malefactors, Democratic or Republican. With this explanation of its character and purpose, we submit the

THE AMERICAN FARMER FREE

TO ALL OUR SUBSCRIBERS

All our subscribers who will pay their subscription accounts to this paper in full to date, and one year in advance, will be presented with one year's subscription to THE "AMERICAN FARMER."

A sixteen-page Agricultural Magazine, published by E. A. K. Hackett, at Fort Wayne, Indiana, and which is rapidly taking rank as one of the leading Agricultural publications of the country. It is devoted exclusively to the interests of the Farmer, Stock Breeder, Dairyman, Gardener, and their household, and every species of industry connected with that great portion of the people of the world, the Farmers. The subscription price is One Dollar per Year. Farmers can not well get along without it. It puts new ideas into their minds. It teaches them how to farm with profit to themselves. It makes the home happy, the young folks cheerful, the growler contented, the downcast happy, and the demagogue honest.

Positions when Competent.

I entered the Louisville Shorthand Institute in September, 1884, having no knowledge of the subject whatsoever. I graduated in February, 1885, and immediately obtained a position with Messrs. Ray & Co., of this city, through the Principal of the Institute. I wish to add that Prof. Hale fulfilled every promise made to me before entering the school. A. VARILLA
